

FRED LAWSON (1888 - 1968)

He was and will be rated as one of Britain's best (and most prolific landscape) watercolourists, not perhaps a Cotman, but very very close behind. Extremely underrated artist.

When he did a good watercolour, it is exemplary. NO-one can beat Lawson in that skill.