

OWEN BOWEN 1873-1967

Oil

Owen Bowen ROI. Painter in oil and watercolour of landscapes, and still life. Born in Leeds he painted mostly in Yorkshire and formed the Leeds School of Paining, later known as the Owen Bowen School of Painting. Elected a member of the Royal Institute in 1916, becoming president of the latter from 1947-1953

He was a friend of Marie Hartley and came to Sue's house (formally Marie Hartley's) a few times.
